MODERN METHODS

WILKINS' POULTRY RANCH CONDUCTED ALONG VERY PROFITABLE LINES

Some one asked recently why the Evening News paid so much attention to poultry raising and poultry raisers. The answer is that a great many Glendale citizens are vitally interested in this industry, some of them as the sole means of livelihood and they need to know the best methods of feeding and care of poultry. Therefore the Evening News is glad to seek out those experienced in this important line of industry, get their views and give them forth that others may profit by them. With this idea in mind an Evening News reporter visited the ranch of Geo. Wilkins, on the San Fernando Road, near Colorado, where Mrs. Wilkins, who practically runs the ranch, her husband being engaged a good part of the time with other business, very kindly showed us about and talked entertainingly of her methods and her experiences. She has about 800 laying hens now, mostly White Leghorns, the balance Barred Rocks, and several hundred youngsters, from three or four weeks to six months old. All are comfortably housed, with sufficient runways to give them plenty of exercise. Nearly as much care is used in building the modern poultry house as in putting up a dwelling. Care has to be taken to exclude drafts, to provide methods of cleanliness and comfortable nests free from vermin. Mrs. Wilkins looks after all these things very closely with the result that now, when hens are beginning to slacken in their laying, hers are still making a record above 50 per cent. The young chicks have special houses, where they can be kept warm all the time and their every comfort looked after.

Mrs. Wilkins has some very decided notions on feeding. She buys the ingredients very carefully and mixes her own scratch feed, or, rather, has it mixed. Like others she has found that some decidedly inferior, if not positively harmful, beef scrap is being sent out by the packers this year and she excludes from her scratch feed all that there is any suspicion of. In green stuff, which she feeds twice a day, she prefers green barley hay, and while using green alfalfa, she does not recommend it, believing that the kidneys are affected by its use. The eggs from the ranch command the "selects" price, which is the highest quoted and there is always a ready market for them. Selects must weigh in excess of 23 ounces to the dozen. Mrs. Wilkins has a few layers whose eggs weigh 32 ounces to the dozen, which is very unusual. Pullet eggs weigh from 18 to 22 ounces, nothing onder 18 being accepted by buyers.

IS SENDING HER BEST

ROCKY FORD, COLORADO, GIVES UP ANOTHER FAMILY TO GLENDALE

Dr. S. B. Warner and wife, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Harriet Randall, arrived in Glendale this week from Rocky Ford, Colo., and will make their home here in the future. They are warm friends of L. W. Babcock, of 413 North Isabel, who also came here from Rocky Ford. Dr. Walker has bought the Walker place at 429 North Kenwood. He is a retired Methodist minister who has held many important pastorates in the Middle West. His daughter, Mrs. Randall, is an accomplished pipe organ player and will be a valued aid to the First. M. E. Church and Sunday School, with which she and her parents will affiliate. Dr. Warner was a much loved man in Rocky Ford, where he ministered to the Methodist congregation for five years and more than one farewell meeting was given the family before their departure for Glendale.

PATRIOTIC SERVICES

On the authority of Chaplain C. R. Norton, speaking on behalf of the N. P. Banks Post and Corps, every Grand Army man in the community is requested to meet with his comrades on Saturday afternoon at G. A. R. Hall, on Glendale avenue and Garfield Ave., at 2 o'clock, and bring with him a flag, in recognition of the fact that it is Flag Day.

The Woman's Relief Corps and members of the N. P. Banks Post especially invite the Sons of Veterans, Spanish War Veterans, Pershing Camp of American Defenders, all local troops of Boy Scouts of America to join with them in a service at the Glendale Presbyterian Church on East Broadway at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at which a patriotic address will be made by the pastor, Dr. Edmonds.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

PHILIP WERNETTE WILL STRIVE FOR SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA CHAMPIONSHIP

An event of great interest to the oratorical department of Glendale High is the contest for the oratorical championship of Southern California which will take place Friday evening at 8 o'clock in Los Angeles at the old L. A. High auditorium near Broadway on Sunset boulevard.

Orators from five schools will participate, viz., Pasadena High, Hollywood High, Los Angeles High, Jefferson High and Glendale High, Philip Wernette being the representative of Glendale. He, it will be remembered, won the $20 gold medal in the oratorical contest at Glendale Union High with his oration "Americans All," which he will deliver Friday evening.

At this contest three medals of bronze, silver and gold will be bestowed, also the beautiful silver trophy cup offered by the University of Southern California, which, two years ago, was won by Poly High, and last year by Glendale's representative, Clarence Ralston. It has this year remained in the possession of Glendale High, but, as stated, will again be competed for and be the possession for the year to come of the school whose representative wins it. When it has been three times won by the representatives of any one school, it becomes the permanent property of that school. Of course, the local school entertains high hopes that Philip Wernette will bring it back to Glendale.

Two weeks ago the orations of contestants were mailed to the heads of the English Departments of Pomona College, Occidental College and the University of Southern California who will bestow marks for composition and thought on which 50 per cent. of the marking will be based. Three other judges from Los Angeles will mark for delivery and oratory.

Quite a large delegation from Glendale will attend the contest. Some will go by auto, some by trolley. Those who go by the latter method should transfer from the Glendale line to either the Temple street car or Sunset boulevard.

AUTOMOBILES WANTED FOR BOND ELECTION

Glendale which is and always will be a most serious "thorn in the flesh" of all opponents of municipal ownership of public utilities is passing through a very critical period. It is essential that all friends of municipal ownership join the fight. The city must husband its resources and make a demonstration of the strength of its sentiment on this proposition. The situation demands an overwhelming vote in favor of the water bonds next Tuesday. Automobiles and workers are needed for the election and volunteers are called for. 'Phone Glendale 537 or see V. M. Hollister, at 138 North Brand boulevard.

SOLDIER BOYS ENTERTAINED

D. Ripley Jackson and family were agreeably surprised Wednesday when two soldier boys who have just been discharged from the aviation service at March Field, appeared at their home. One was Lieutenant R. K. Perry of New Jersey, a former college chum of Kenneth Jackson, the other Lieut. M. Taubert of North Dakota. A program for their entertainment was at once organized. They were taken to Casa Verdugo for a real Spanish dinner and then were made guests of honor at an impromptu dance at the Jackson residence on East Chestnut street, where the following dancers tripped the light fantastic until midnight: Misses Marie Oliver, Dorothy Hunt, Ruth Wilson, Esther Ralston, Ailine Sullivan, Mrs. Rambeau, Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Wells, Messrs. Albert, Robert and Francis Sullivan, Robert Burson, Lieutenants Perry and Taubert, Kenneth Jackson and the host and hostess. When dancing ceased refreshments were served

Today the lieutenants will enjoy an auto trip and be taken through the Fox Studios at Hollywood. They will leave for home the last of the week, going by way of Seattle.

ARRESTS OF AGITATORS PROMISED

DISINTEGRATION OF THE GENERAL STRIKE AT WINNIPEG IS PREDICTED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WINNIPEG, June 12.—Following a conference of government officials, army intelligence officers announced today that arrests of agitators might be expected before Saturday. Many predicted that this will mean the disintegration of the general strike.

Following reports that strikers would "strenuously oppose" the resumption of street car service, city officials abandoned the plan to resume it, saying they feared rioting. Labor leaders declared that a large armored car and numerous machine guns had been brought here by the government. The report was unconfirmed.

ELECTION RIOTS STILL ON

JUAN GARCIA, ELECTED GOVERNOR OF NUEVA LEON TO BE JAILED BY CARRANZISTAS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NUEVA LAREDO, Mex., June 12.—Travelers today brought word than Juan Garcia, elected governor of Nueva Leon last Sunday, would be jailed by Carranzistas at Monterey. It was stated that street fighting had progressed to Monterey and other cities since Monday with the dead numbering between fifty and one hundred.

BOTH SIDES SATISFIED

TELEGRAPH COMPANY OFFICIALS SAY STRIKE IS A FAILURE—UNION OFFICIALS IT IS A SUCCESS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, June 12.—Both sides are apparently satisfied with the progress of the telegraphers' strike.

Western Union representatives said this morning there was no interference with their business throughout the country. The Postal company admitted some inconvenience but refused to admit that the situation was serious.

President Konenkamp of the Telegraphers' union declared the strike a success and said the eastern broker operators had voted for a sympathetic strike.

LOS ANGELES, June 12.—L. I. Marshall, who is directing the telegraphers' strike on the Pacific Coast, declared today that president Manion head of the order of Railway trainmen, now in session at Atlantic City had issued orders for all railway telegraphers to stop handling Western Union business.

Marshall declared this would close thousands of Western Union offices where they are consolidated with railroad offices. Marshall said he had received word of the orders from Denver and attributed the fact that they had not been received here to delay in transmission. He said the strike is satisfactory all over the coast.

Western Union representatives declared: "There is no strike here," while Postal officials said that Santa Barbara and one office in New Mexico are the only offices in this territory that are closed.

MERCHANT MARINE OPERATION

CHAIRMAN HURLEY WOULD GIVE OVERSEAS TRADE THE "FULL BENEFIT OF COMPETITIVE SERVICE"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Shipping Board Chairman Hurley, in a letter to Senator Jones of the Senate Commerce committee, recommended private ownership of the merchant marine. He declared that the government should retire from ship building and ship operating as soon as possible.

He recommended that the overseas trade be given the "full benefit of competitive service" and that ship owners be left free to render such service.

ANSWER TO GERMANY COMPLETED

RECOGNITION OF ADMIRAL KOLCHAK'S RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT REFUSED BY ALLIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, June 12.—A semi-official French statement issued today stated the allied answer to the German counter proposals had been completed and would be given to the German delegation tomorrow. From the same source it was learned that the allies have refused to recognize Admiral Kolchak's Russian government.

TURKS SEND ENVOY FOR TREATY

VAUGRESSON, France, June 12.—Turkish Foreign Minister Damar Cerid arrived at midnight. He comes to receive the Turkish peace treaty.

MONROE DOCTRINE

MESS SERGT. BAKER SAYS IT IS THE CREED OF RETURNING SOLDIERS

At the benefit entertainment for the Baraca Class of the Central Methodist Church, Roger Baker, recently returned and a member of the class, gave an account of his war experiences from the time he left Glendale to the signing of the armistice. He and his wife also contributed musical numbers and readings were given by Mrs. Charles Klamm and Mrs. Eustace B. Moore. Following the program Mr. Baker exhibited and explained his collection of war souvenirs. Ice-cream and cake were served and about $15 was realized.

Mr. Baker, who was discharged with the rank of Mess Sergeant and who was in the office of the company when they reached France, was determined to get into action and in his talk he told how, on the night they reached the railhead behind the Argonne forest he deserted the company without leave and without his gas mask made his way to the front line, which was shelled three times that night. For this act of disobedience he was not taken into the office again

MERLE ECKLES

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eckles of 125½ North Brand boulevard are looking daily for a telegram from their son Merle announcing his arrival in New York from overseas. Their last letter from him written from Romorantin said he expected to leave there in a week. He wrote that he and his comrades had a good time, but nevertheless would be very glad to get home. He described a nice entertainment he had attended the night before when some American girls sang and entertained the boys, and how good it seemed to see them. He was hoping he would be given his discharge in the east so he could make stops on the way home and visit friends and relatives. He would like to go again to the camp in North Carolina where he was so long and where he made a good many friends. He also wants to stop in Nebraska where he has aunts who have not seen him since he was twelve years old.

P. E. O. LUNCHEON

Chapter L of the P. E. O. closed its year Wednesday with a delightful luncheon at the home of Mrs. H. E. Bartlett of 347 North Brand boulevard. Preceding the luncheon was a business session at which Mrs. David Gregg and her daughter, Rebecca Gregg, were initiated. The special guest of the day, Mrs. Hulda Miller, Past State President and a Past Supreme Officer, who organized Chapter L, and has always felt a special interest in it, declared it was the first time she had witnessed the joint initiation of a mother and daughter, and it gave her great pleasure to be present at such a ceremony. This chapter is so fortunate, however, as to have eight mothers and daughters on its membership roll. Miss Byam, chairman of programs, gave an outline of programs arranged for the next chapter year which will begin with the fourth Wednesday in September.

The luncheon tables at which about forty guests were seated, were centered with Shasta daisies and coreopsis, in recognition of the P. E. O. colors—yellow and white.

A number of guests were present from other chapters, the list including Mrs. Miller already mentioned who represented Chapter E of Los Angeles, Mrs. Gardener of the same chapter, Mrs. Boardman of Long Beach, Mrs. Collison of the San Jacinto Chapter, Mrs. Crosby from Stewart, Ia., Mrs. Blanche Anger of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Brown of Chapter B. A., this city. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Robert Blackburn, Mrs. A. M. Hunt, Mrs. Ed Lee, Mrs. Arthur Brown and Mrs. H. D. Goss.

The program which followed the luncheon included a fine talk by Mrs. Miller on the work of the Order, especially its responsibilities in connection with post-war reconstruction work. She also dwelt on her special interest in Chapter L and her pride in its accomplishments.

Mrs. Charles Temple read effectively a very beautiful exhortation delivered at the State Convention by Mrs. Kemp on the theme "Carrying On." Informal sociability characterized the remainder of the afternoon.

FEDERATED MEN

ALL IS IN READINESS FOR BROTHERHOOD BANQUET TOMORROW NIGHT

A large attendance is expected tomorrow night at the Federated Brotherhood banquet, to be held in the bungalow of Central Christian Church at 7 o'clock. The men of the brotherhoods of the various churches of Glendale are taking an active interest in seeing that a large attendance is secured, as this is a very important meeting, the first for over a year. Dr. Selecman, the well-known pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, Los Angeles, will be the speaker of the evening, and his subject is to be "My Experiences in France." He is a man of fine presence and an eloquent speaker. On the subject chosen he is at his best, for every word comes direct from the heart of one who lived the life of a soldier at the front and shared the hardships he was assisting to alleviate.

MISS GRIST RECUPERATING

Miss Elleen Grist of 317 North Brand boulevard is recuperating from an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids which kept her in the hospital for several days. She expects to take up vocal work as soon as her throat is well enough. Her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, have returned to Glendale, Mr. Pierce going back and forth daily to his work in the shipyards.

LINDSAY RECITAL

A BRILLIANT AFFAIR RESEMBLING OPENING NIGHT OF GRAND OPERA

The vicinity of Brand boulevard and Park avenue on Wednesday evening presented the appearance of a first night of grand opera, with scores of automobiles parked about Knights of Pythias Hall, and a special officer on duty there. The occasion was the third annual dance recital of Miss Edith Lindsay and her pupils, and the auditorium was filled to overflowing with representative art lovers of Glendale and Hollywood.

The Lindsay dancers have established a high standard of proficiency in the past, and their performance last evening showed steady progress in their delightful work. Miss Lindsay herself, youthful as she is, shows a maturity of ability almost beyond belief. Her interpretation of "Badinage" as the outstanding feature of the "Dresden Doll Ballet," participated in by eighteen of her pupils, was worthy of unstinted praise, Miss Lindsay presenting a most charming appearance, coupled with the technique of a consummate artist, and her assistants demonstrating talent, far beyond their years.

The program was a varied one, combining the fanciful, as evidenced by diminutive Barbara Chandler in "Moonbeams," Mary Prowell in "Le Balloon," Lois Naudain as "A Wild Rose," Margaret Maguth in "Will o' the Wisp," and Carmen de Rue as "Forget-Me-Not," with the more substantially descriptive violin playing "Gypsy" of Marcella Webb, a "Spanish Waltz" by Carmen de Lara, "A Chinese Fantasy" by Margaret Brown, "Roman Warriors" by Kathleen and Dorothy Woods, "La Bohemienne" by Dorothy Patterson, the "Egyptian" of Jean Oliver, the "Spirit of 1917, as exemplified by dainty Georgia French, and "La Sennorita" by Miss Lindsay herself.

The quaint "Polka" of Marion Stadler, "Pas de Seul" of Jane Nicoles, "Pierrette Polka" by Marcella Webb and Jane Nicoles, and "Gavotte" of Jane Gray Davis and Morton Davis beautifully costumed and executed, evoked prolonged applause, and the "Petite Cherubs," consisting of Gwendolyn Shattuck, Jane Leighton, Alice Ayars, Dorothy Parker, Barbara Chandler and Mary Zoe Baird, "managed and controlled" by Georgia French, brought down the house.

One of the most effective numbers was the "Classic Frieze with Garland," presented by Margaret Steppling, Carmen de Rue, Jean Oliver, Mary Prowell and Margaret Maguth, and the "Dresden Doll Ballet" already mentioned, participated in by Misses Oliver, Prowell, de Lara, Naudain, Woods, Chandler, Webb, Nicoles, Brown, Stadler, Patterson, Carolyn Ayars, Lillian Sternberg, Orrell Hester and Grace Yarborough, which closed the recital with a remarkable exhibition of toe dancing.

The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful and the costumes designed by Mrs. M. Lindsay showed marked originality and taste.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1919

STATE HIGHWAY BOND ISSUE

By Jonathan S. Dodge, Chairman, Board of Supervisors.

The taxpayers of Los Angeles County will be called upon to invest $100,000.00 or more in the expenses of a special election to be held July 1st. This election is held in pursuance of a special act of the Legislature, and the ballot will contain but one proposition.

The question at issue is in effect an amendment to the constitution, and provides that the State issue forty millions of dollars in highway bonds, payable in 40 annual installments, beginning in 1926, and ending in 1965, said bonds bearing 4½ per cent. interest. The proceeds of these bonds will be used as follows:

One-half for the completion of the highways that have been heretofore agreed upon and approved by the voters of California. In this list will also be included the building of the great highway extending from Saugus up through the Antelope valley, and the Owens valley to Bridgeport, and will cost in excess of $2,000,000. It will also include the construction of the great highway leading from Barstow through San Bernardino, Banning, Mocca, El Centro and on to Yuma costing $2,500,000. It will also include other connecting links in Southern California. In all, the amount to be expended in the entire state for the completion of former improvements will amount to $20,000,000.

The remaining one-half, amounting to $20,000,000 will be used in the construction of new highways not heretofore contemplated, and a list of which is specifically stated in the Legislative act. The most important of these in Southern California are as follows:

The road from Oxnard to San Juan Capistrano, connecting all of the beach cities, providing a sea-level scenic route from north to south, estimated to cost $4,000,000. It also provides for a very valuable and important road, leading through the Antelope Valley, from Lancaster on the east to Baileys on the west, and which, being largely a farmers' road or utility highway, will open up a large section of rich farming land, most of which is now an average distance of 23 miles from a railroad. It is believed that this road will bring into cultivation 60,000 acres of fertile soil.

Two other small highways are provided in Los Angeles county. One consists of an appropriation of $100,000 to be used in co-operation with the Federal government in the starting of a road in the Arroyo Seco back of Pasadena. The other consists of $127,000 to be used in cooperation with the Federal government in starting a road up the San Gabriel canyon.

One other road that will be of great importance to Southern California will be a road leading through a farming section, from Mecca to Blyth, and which will eventually be a transcontinental route for people coming into California from the Southern route. The road from Mojave to Needles, contemplated in the bond issue, will also bring into California a large amount of travel that will come to the West over the Santa Fe trail.

Nothing could be of greater importance to California than the construction of highways, and nothing would build up the Pacific Coast so quickly as bands of concrete that will connect the east with the west. The milions of people in the east will welcome a chance to drive overland to the Pacific coast, and we should encourage the building of highways to the fullest extent.

The Federal government has set aside a fund of 291 millions of dollars, which will be used in cooperation with the states on a fifty-fifty basis in the construction of highways, and at the present time the state of California can receive approximately $3,600,000 of this appropriation by undertaking the construction of highways at this time.

There seems to be no concerted opposition to the bonds, but nevertheless the people interested in improvements should not overlook the importance of this election. All electors should be present July 1 and cast a vote in favor of this bond issue. It is one of the most important elections of the year and we certainly hope that Los Angeles county will come forward with a large and favorable vote for the bonds.

TIME TO STOP "GIVING" TO EUROPE

President Wilson has passed over to the Czecho-Slovaks five million dollars of the people's money. The same dispatch that gives first information of this contribution also states that England's debt to us is over four billions of dollars.

It would strike the average American citizen that it is high time that whatever additional money Uncle Sam may have in his treasury, he should keep at home for the benefit, the protection, the advancement and the needs of his own people.

We certainly have gone as far as we should in befriending, assisting and supporting the peoples of other nations.

It was righteous, and probably even necessary, that we help the allies financially when they were in great need of help.

But there is no reason why this should be a continuous chain of taking on their part and of giving on ours. There is absolutely no excuse now for not stopping this giving, and not permitting it to grow into one continuous act of charity, "world without end, Amen."

And what is said of Uncle Sam could also be said of the American Red Cross. It has vast sums of money in its possession today. At least a very large portion thereof should be conserved for the use of the American people at home; for the benefit, the protection, the support, the wants, and the need of American men, women and particularly the children—Monrovia News.

Tonight, Thursday evening, the committee which consists of Ezra Parker and Mesdames Kulp and Ryan, will meet with the Board and suggest a date for the calling of another mass meeting to consider the needed school improvements and the probable amount of a bond issue.

GREATLY INTERESTED IN TELEPHONE SITUATION

Mr. Stevenson of Burbank was a caller at the Evening News office this morning and expressed himself quite freely on the telephone situation. He is well acquainted with the manager of the Moorhead Wireless Telephone Plant at San Francisco, but says that kind of phones would not do for a local system. The Mr. Davis mentioned in the Evening News article of yesterday is Will Davis, the versatile writer, who figures in one of the Los Angeles evening papers as "Junius" and as the writer of the letters from "Bill." Mr. Stevenson has known him from boyhood and says he is thoroughly conversant with the telephone subject as well as newspaper writing.

Tables were set out doors, ice-cream and cake were served, games were played; a good time was greatly enjoyed.

For nearly eight years Mrs. Yard has been the efficient head of this work. She has seen many of the little ones come and go. None of them ever forgot "Auntie Yard."

CAMP MEETING VISITORS

Among Glendale residents who attended the annual camp meeting of the Seventh-day Adventists of Central California, at Visalia last week, were Dr. H. G. Westphal, medical superintendent of the Glendale Sanitarium; C. E. Kimlin, the business manager; Pastor J. Adams Stevens, home missionary secretary of the Adventists for the states of California, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and Western Colorado; Pastor G. W. Reaser, field secretary, and Pastor J. W. Christian, president of the Pacific Union Conference. Mr. Christian motored up with his family, leaving Glendale Tuesday morning, and arriving at the camp-ground the same evening about 8 o'clock. Pastor M. N. Helligso, formerly of Glendale, but now chaplain of the St. Helena (Cal.) Sanitarium, was also present at the meeting.

The camp was pitched in Tulare County Park, formerly known as Mooney's Grove, under the shade of giant oaks. More than 300 family tents were pitched for the accommodation of those who attended the 10-day session, and so great were the crowds that the large canvas pavilion was far too small. Scores, and at some of the meetings, hundreds, found seats outside the tent in the shade of the large trees. Besides those encamped, many motored to the camp-meeting for the week ends, and Saturdays and Sundays hundreds of automobiles filled the available parking space.

Although not a delegated assembly, the constituency present voted to ratify the action of its committee in taking over the ownership and management of the Lodi (Cal.) Academy, jointly with the Northern California Conference of the Adventists, from the Board of Directors of the Pacific Union College, at St. Helena. The Lodi institution will now be under the direct supervision of a Board appointed by these two conferences. The new Board of Directors, as named, consists of Prof. Chauncey Hare, principal of the academy; H. S. Shaw, of Fresno; F. E. Brown, of Hanford; G. A. Grauer, of Modesto; Clarence Santee, of Lodi; P. H. Glantz, Lodi, and C. Stone, Lodi.

Seventeen hundred fifty dollars toward the institution, of which $750 will be used for the erection of a manual training building, and other needed improvements, was contributed by the Central California Conference by vote of the constituency, and it is probable that $750 will be added to the fund by the Northern California Conference soon.

TUJUNGA

People who keep bees should remember to put out water for them. Not only for their own use, but to preserve good feelings with their neighbors. A dripping faucet is not enough in your own yard, instead put a water-tight, shallow receptacle, fill with sand, and then sprinkle over a little salt, and put under a dripping faucet, where it may be kept wet. It should be at least two feet in circumference. If you will remember that each hive contains about twenty thousand bees, and only one dripping hydrant is allowed for them, it is no wonder they go to the neighbors. If you have ever reached to turn on the water, and pinched a bee, you know just how you felt toward the man who owned the bees. Be wise and provide water for your own bees and keep your neighbors in good humor.

Dr. Wilkinson is enlarging his house on Michigan highway and putting in stone foundation. The doctor is a great enthusiast in regard to Tujunga and spends all his spare time in improving his place. His son, Ray, has purchased a half acre adjoining his father's property.

The condition of Mrs. Leo Lang remains about the same, although progressing as well as can yet be expected.

A meeting was held on Monday evening at Bolton Hall mainly to protest against an increase in the water rates. Mr. Bright, Mr. Slusher and Mr. Kirshman were appointed as a committee to interview the R. R. Commission in regard to the matter.

Frank Begue is spending a few days at his father's ranch. One by one the boys return from the army, looking good to us, and we are glad to say not one of the twenty-one on our service flag but who came through the war safely and are again among their old friends.

The Ladies' Aid held their usual monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. S. McGroarty on Manzanita Drive. There was a large attendance and all enjoyed the day's pleasure.

C. W. Dean was in Long Beach on Tuesday. Says it was a gray, cold day.

Miss Hannah McKee, who is staying in Pasadena for a time, was a caller on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bermeyer, who purchased the Saeger home, have moved in and are already enlarging the house.

Mr. Green, who formerly lived here, was in Tujunga on Wednesday looking after interests in this place.

We regret to learn of the sudden passing of Mrs. MacWilliams, who lived on Monte Vista boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. MacWilliams are among the pioneers of this section, and they worked very hard to get the little home on a paying basis, which they had surely succeeded in doing. She was a dear, kindly, little soul and we shall miss her from our midst. Services were held on Tuesday at Forest Lawn cemetery at Glendale.

Mrs. Dean attended the meeting of the New Thought International Alliance, which was held at the Brack Shops auditorium last week. There was a large enthusiastic attendance, also fine speakers. While there she learned that Mrs. A. V. Holmes, who formerly lived here, was the one who proposed and carried out the planting of the cross in Griffith Park, where the New Thought Centers held a sunrise meeting on Easter Sunday. Meetings will be held there every Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock during June, July and August. Different Centers will furnish programs.

The place formerly owned by Ben Clark on Sunset boulevard, was sold this week to Mr. and Mrs. Mowan, of Los Angeles, who will come here to reside.

but it does not seem to have been a punishment because, as he explained, he wanted to see what was going on at the front; that was what he had gone to France to do. From that time on he was with the fighing forces until the armistice was signed when he was within thirty or forty miles of Brussels. He dwelt on the fact that the soldiers were far more ignorant of the progress and plans of the war than were the civilians outside because the men saw no papers except very old ones, and heard only floating rumors. They knew very little about the impending armistice until they were notified that it had actually been signed. At the time they were well satisfied to have it so because conditions had been very hard, but now, he said, some of them think it might have been better to go on into Germany.

Relative to the sentiments of the returned soldiers, he says: "I was glad to do what I did and I was very glad to get out. I have had enough of soldiering. I think, and the soldiers I have talked with think, the United States should abide by the Monroe Doctrine and keep our hands out of European politics and make Europe keep her hands off America. They would rather follow Washington's advice to avoid entangling alliances. All the men I have spoken to seem to think that would be the best plan. We went over there because it seemed to be our duty, but the French people as a whole did not show any gratitude to the boys. They were disposed to get every cent they could out of the Americans. There was constant trouble because they charged us double what they would charge a Frenchman every opportunity they had. Even in Paris this was true."
